

Love

By Charity Ralphs

Love is pink.

It sounds like your heart starts beating faster.

It smells like the scent of roses.

It tastes like sweet candy just made.

It looks like people in love.

Love feels like a warm kiss.

Confidence

By Charity Ralphs

Confidence is blue.

It sounds like cheerful laughing.

It smells like a flower that had just bloomed.

It tastes like a cool breeze.

It looks like someone smiling end to end.

Confidence feels like everyone depends on you.
